Make a Difference for Youth

A two-day community forum
October 7-8, 2011

Featuring the Virginia Premiere of
"From Place to Place"

2 p.m., Saturday, October 8
Byrd Theatre

2908 West Cary Street, Richmond, VA, 23221

We will premiere From Place to Place, a documentary that tells the story of Raif, Mandy and Micah, who grew up in foster care, as they face life aging out of the system with little support. With the help of producer Matt Anderson, the film will be followed by a forum led by local youth who will talk about their own experiences. Local government and non-profit professionals will also join the youth to talk about how they think the community can make a difference. Both the film and the forum will be held at The Byrd Theater.

This event is sponsored by the Freddie Mac Foundation.
It is free of charge and open to the public.

To kick off the event, join us for a concert by

Jimmy Wayne

7:30 p.m., Friday, October 7

University of Richmond, Camp Concert Hall

Jimmy is a national spokesperson for youth in the foster care system. While performing his country hits to local fans, Jimmy will also share stories of his own experiences in the foster care system.

Donations are welcome to attend the concert.

Foster youth will attend for free!
